

Fact Sheet

U.S. Army Europe

Public Affairs Office

Tel: 0611-143-537-0005, FAX: 0611-705-3049 DSN: 314-537-0005

www.eur.army.mil | usarmyeurope.contact@mail.mil

10th Combat Aviation Brigade, 10th Mountain Division Aviation Regionally Allocated Force

- 10th CAB, 10th Mountain Division is home stationed at Fort Drum, New York
- Supported by 1st Battalion, 501st Aviation Regiment, 1st Armored Division, from Fort Bliss, Texas
- Deployed with about 2,200 Soldiers for a nine-month rotation from February-November 2017
- Deployed with 86 aircraft:
 - 12 CH-47 Chinooks
 - 38 UH-60 Black Hawks
 - 12 HH-60 Black Hawks (MEDEVAC)
 - 24 AH-64 Apaches
- The brigade headquarters with a majority of their helicopters and personnel will work primarily out of Illesheim, Germany
 - 5 UH-60s and about 50 Soldiers at Lielvarde Air Base, Latvia
 - 5 UH-60s and about 50 Soldiers at Mihail Kogainiceanu Air Base, Romania
 - Plans for a team to be based in Poland in the future
- Supporting Operation Atlantic Resolve, other training and missions across Europe
- Missions will include medical transport, exercise support and aviation operations throughout Europe to improve interoperability and strengthen relationships
- The brigade will bring and return to home station with a majority of their equipment
- Arrival in theater was accomplished using three sea ports (Bremerhaven, Germany; Antwerp, Belgium; and Thessaloniki, Greece) and three air ports (Riga, Latvia; Ramstein Air Base, Germany; and Nurnberg, Germany)

CH-47 Chinook

UH-60 Black Hawk

HH-60 Black Hawk

AH-64 Apache

For more information about the 10th Combat Aviation Brigade, please contact Sgt. 1st Class Nathan Hutchison by email at nathan.w.hutchison.mil@mail.mil.

For more information on Operation Atlantic Resolve, follow #AtlanticResolve on social media or visit www.eur.army.mil/AtlanticResolve.